The tenth annual meeting of Group 5 of the Virginia Bankers' Association was held at Maple Shade Inn, Pulaski, Saturday evening. The group embraces Southwest Virginia from Roanoke down and includes about 100 banks. Officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: Chairman, B. M. Hagan, cashier Bank of Christiansburg; secretary-treasurer, C. W. Beerbower; auditor National Exchange Bank, Roanoke; the advisory committee, R. H. Crockett, Graham; H. E. Jones, Bristol; George Jenkins Appalachie. Marion Abington and Pearisburg extended invitations for the next meeting. The selection was left to the advisory board.

Radio messages received yesterday at Old Point Comfort, from the coast guard cutter Onondaga stated that two tugs were towing the burning Ward Line steamer Antilla to Hampton Roads, and that the passengers and crews, which took to the small boats 120 miles off Cape Henry, Saturday night, were aboard the cutter, which was conveying the tow.

A poll of nearly all the ministers of the Protestant Episcopal ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the diocese of Virginia, shows that the great majority of them are opposed to the proposition to change and shorten the Ten Commandments at the forthcoming triennial convention of the church in St. Louis. The Virginia clergymen and laymen who will attend the convention as delegates are expected to vote against the proposed change.

Mrs. C. R. Todd, wife of a Hampton merchant, was probably fatally injured, her three daughters were slightly hurt and Vance Shields was seriously, if not fatally, injured yesterday afternoon near Hampton when an automobile in which they were riding ran into a ditch and turned turtle.

Despite the warning issued by the British Ambassador and in face of the fact that the German submarine U-53 sunk two British ships and crippled another off Nantuxet Saturday night and yesterday the British steamers Sahara and the Marioneth sailed yesterday from Newport News for England with cargoes of grain and food-stuffs. The British steamers Maxton, Orckinraig and the Berwin Polawh came in. They were advised of the presence of the German submarine off the New England coast by British warships.

Announcement was made yesterday that Secretary of Commerce William C. Redfield will address the Southern Commercial Congress at Norfolk, Va., December 11-14, on "The Relation of the Commerce Department to International Reconstruction." Secretary Redfield has ordered a mobilization of the ships in the service of the Commerce Department at Norfolk for the gathering of Southern business men. This service includes four branches—the Lighthouse Service, the Coast Guard Service, the Bureau of Navigation and the Bureau of Fisheries.

In an automobile accident Friday night five miles east of Harrisonburg, Ennis Pennington, 32 years old, and unmarried, was instantly killed, and Marshall Powell, of Elkton, was severely injured. Pennington ran into a ditch, and, in attempting to right the car, brought it to a sudden halt, causing it to turn turtle. He was caught under the machine and horribly crushed. His spine was broken, his breast and skull crushed and his collarbone and nose broken.

Carring the Buffalo Bill 101 Ranch shows, a train on the Virginia Railway, on the way to Norfolk from Lexington, was wrecked 141 miles from Norfolk at 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Twenty-six horses were killed and considerable baggage was destroyed, but officials of the railroad here say no persons were injured. The show is scheduled to exhibit at Norfolk today. A truck on one of the cars left the track, causing other cars to pile up on the wrecked car.

The Curtiss combination two-motor land-and-water machine, being tested at Newport News, for the United States government was totally wrecked Saturday afternoon, when Pilot Victor Vernon sent it crashing, nose first, into the water while attempting a landing. Vernon and Percy Kirkham, mechanic, were precipitated thirty feet through the air, but escaped without injury.

Marshall Hicks, son of James B. Hicks, of Monroe, fell from a tobacco house which he was just finishing and is thought to have broken his back between the shoulders. The entire lower part of his body is paralyzed. It is supposed that Mr. Hicks became ill and lost his balance, falling to the ground, a distance of about 200 feet. A sad feature of the accident is the fact that Mr. Hicks had just completed his dwelling house and expected to be married at an early date this fall.

NEWS OF THE DAY

William Howell Ellis, who is prominent socially in Philadelphia, yesterday shot and killed his wife and then attempted suicide by shooting himself at his home. Holyhock, on the Bethlehem turnpike, near Amber. The act, it is said, was caused by jealousy.

Adam Schubert, millionaire farmer and landowner, of Lorain county, Ohio, yesterday burned his country home, failed in an attempt to hang himself and committed suicide by cutting his throat with a hunting knife, supposedly while deranged by brooding over the death of his wife six
